STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1892.

NO. 75

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Mr. Frank Holtzclaw and Miss Annie L. Underwood will be married at Mr. Wm. Underwood's to day. He is 24 and she is just 17.

—It is said that Senator David B. Hill will soon renounce bachelorhood and marry a beautiful widow, Mrs. Fannie Iverson, of Atlanta, Ga.

—Mr. George L. Wallis, the Louisville Times' bright, brainy and bald-headed Legislative correspondent, and Miss Ruth, daughter of Maj. H. T. Staunton, are to be married Dec. 14.

—John F. Herndon, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Fayette, has brought suit against his wife, who was a Miss Ford, daughter of the proprietor of Ford's Hotel, Richmond, Va. for divorce, alleging abandonment.

—Wm. Walters went to the room in which his betrothed, Miss Emily Davis, lay dead at Wilkesbarre, Pa., and taking a vial of strychnine from his pocket said "Good-bye, Emily, I'll soon be with you." He then swallowed the poison and was dead in 10 minutes.

—Miss Leona Lott, of Parris, Miss., fully demonstrated the fickleness of her sex last week. She eloped with Laylayette Slade and when he went for the license another lover came along and she flew with him. He left her at a friend's residence while he sought the license. In the mean time Wilbur Griffin put in an appearance and claiming that she had promised him first she eloped with him and was finally duly made Mrs. Griffin.

—The marriage of Mr. R. C. Ford, cashier of the First National Bank of London and an excellent gentleman, and Miss Emma Letitia Garrard was duly solemnized at Manchester Thursday, Rev. J. L. McKee, of Danville, officiating. The bridesmaids were Miss Mahan, Danville; Miss Louise Bailey, Stanford, and Miss White, Manchester. The groomsmen were, James Garrard, brother of the bride, James White, Manchester, and E. K. Wilson, London. The bride is a daughter of Gen. T. T. Garrard and a most lovely and cultivated lady, who has many friends here who wish her bon voyage on the sea of matrimony. Mr. and Mrs. Ford will spend their honeymoon in Florida and be at home to their friends after Jan. 1.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. W. E. Arnold will preach at McKendree Sunday.

—Rev. A. S. Moffett held a meeting at Providence, Mercer county, which brought two souls into the fold.

—Rev. John Bell Gibson has had a flattering call from the new Christian church at Owensboro, but he has not decided yet whether or not he will accept it.

—It is said that the Cardinal Consistory will take place at the Vatican December 10, when it is expected that the Pope will create 13 cardinals. There are 17 vacant Cardinalates.

—Six persons were baptized and received into the Methodist church at Neal's Creek, Sunday. This makes 16 as the result of the recent meeting conducted by Revs. Early and Daughette.

—There were two additions to the Christian church Sunday—Messrs. E. H. Jones and Walter Saunders. The young gentlemen are to be commended for taking a rational step in a quiet and business-like way, without excitement or other attendant instigation, except a plain duty.

—Rev. R. B. Mahony will preach at the Methodist church Sunday morning and Rev. R. H. Caldwell at night. Prayer meeting at same church each night this week beginning with Thursday night. On Monday, 21st, Rev. J. R. Deering, of Versailles, will be here to continue the meeting.

—Elder J. S. Sweeney, pastor of the Christian church, Paris, has been appointed a member of the Advisory Council on Religious Congresses of the World's Congress Auxiliary in connection with the Columbian Exposition of 1893. This means to assist in preparing the programme and directing the proceedings of the World's Parliament of Religion.

—The General Association of Kentucky Baptists are in session at Covington with a large majority of the preachers present. The statistics read show that in 1792 there were 35,100 Baptists in the U. S., while in 1892 the number is 3,269,806. The baptisms for the past year for Kentucky were 16,247. The money collected for foreign missions in the United States was $621,907 in the last year, while $653,244 was secured for home mission work. The church is now sustaining 36 colleges and universities, seven theological seminaries and 114 other educational establishments.

—Clinton Eidler, of Covington, who held a responsible position with a firm in that city, has a mania for picking pockets and at times cannot resist the temptation. He tried it on a lady the other day and the judge before whom he was tried thought it best to give him a little confinement so gave him a year in the penitentiary.

—Ground was broken at Atlanta, Ind. for the largest tin plate factory in the world.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Miss Ella Watson was called to Louisville Saturday on business connected with the post-office.

—The town trustees met Saturday and appointed James I. Hamilton chief of police. He will serve until the election next November.

—Miss Jane Hopper has received from her sister, Mrs. Ed Stephens, of Midland, Texas, a box of fine vegetables. Miss Jane kindly remembered the I. J. scribe.

—The Garrard County Bible Society will meet at the Methodist church next Sunday night. As all the churches are interested in this society, there will be no union services held that night.

—Thanksgiving services will be held at the Presbyterian church. There will be no regular sermon, but the minister of each church will take part and the services will consist of appropriate music and, to use the language of one of our ministers, "sermonettes." All are cordially invited to attend.

—Miss Maud Robinson is visiting Misses Mamie and Carrie Currey. Robt. Dunn, of Danville, was here Sunday. Mr. Will Berkele, of Louisville, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives here. Mrs. Will Mays and Mr. Sam Anderson are here, having been called to the bedside of their mother. Miss Lettie Brown, of Lexington, is visiting her grand-mother, Mrs. Bettie Beazley. Miss Hattie Vaughan, of Shelbyville, is the guest of Mrs. W. O. Bradley. Mr. Fisher Gaines has accepted a position in Gaines' grocery. Mr. H. A. B. Marksberry and Malcolm Tillett are in Lexington on business. Misses Bright, of Stanford, are visiting Miss Lizzie Thompson. Mr. Will Hutchings and wife spent Sunday with Mrs. C. C. Stormes.

—We stated in our last letter that the circuit clerkship was claimed by both Broadus, republican, and Mason, democrat. The case came up before the board Saturday and the certificate was given to Broadus. It seems that in adding up the votes in one of the Bryansville precincts, the officers failed, or forgot to count, several votes for Mason.

The next day after the certificate was issued and the ballots destroyed one of the judges, a republican, remembered the failure to count the vote for Mason and called the attention of the other officers of the precinct to the fact and a new certificate was issued. Of course the board to issue the certificates of election, viz: the county judge, sheriff and county clerk, could not go behind the certificate issued at the time the ballots were counted and had to give the certificate of election to Broadus. The votes that were forgotten or neglected to be counted for Mason would give him a majority of four. We do not know at this writing whether Mr. Broadus will accept the office or not, but Mr. Mason will contest it in case he does. If Mr. Broadus refuses to accept the place there will be a vacancy and the circuit judge will have to appoint a clerk to serve until the next general election, which will be in November, 1893.

The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette tries to be as happy as possible under adverse circumstances, as the following paragraphs Bourke Cockran discovered that the tumultuous popularity of Cleveland endured even through election day.

The Thanksgiving turkey remains to us as well as for the democrats. So we have something to live for after all.

After marching through Mr. Watterson's slaughter-house, the democratic party neglected to tumble into its open grave.

Texas has such a big democratic majority that it can afford two democratic candidates for governor and give each of them a bigger vote than the combined opposition can give its candidate.

There are scales in the Boston assay office so delicate that they indicate the ten-millionth part of a pound.

LIBERTY, CASEY COUNTY.

—The vote of Casey county was calculated this morning with the following results: The republican candidates for county offices have carried the county with the following majorities: For circuit clerk, Jas. Gibony over Ed Sweeney 185; James Branson, for sheriff, over Geo. Frye 194; for jailer, Brown over Staton 192. For circuit judge of the 29th district, Wallace Jones' majority over Craddock is 183. Silas Adams for Congress, carries Casey county by 216 majority. Muncie, for commonwealth's attorney, without opposition, gets 1,228 votes. Harrison's vote was 1,233 and Cleveland's 1,039, Harrison's majority 184. [His majority in '88 was some eighty odd.] Party lines were very strictly drawn. People's party received 20 votes and prohibition 77. On election day everything was done quietly and in good humor, but both parties were busy. F. P. Combest, for representative, without opposition, received 1,235 votes. From a letter from Wallace Jones, to-night, it is learned that he carried the 29th judicial district by 1,212 majority. The great Cleveland cyclone, which has swept the country with devastation in its course, has not hurt this district.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Hogs are selling at 5 cents in Garrard.

—Jack Hook, the veteran turfman, died at Paris, aged 70.

—Garrard county buyers are paying 7 cents per pound for turkeys.

—Gen. Tracy says he would not be surprised if eventually the trotting gait exceeded the running gait.

—The best trotting record for 100 miles is 8 hours, 55 minutes and 53 seconds. Conqueror has this record.

—The American Turf Congress, in session at St. Louis, elected Col. E. F. Clay president and E. C. Hopper secretary.

—J. L. Yantis sold to Gentry Bros. 6 aged mules for $710 and to Wm. Conn 15 hogs, averaging 300 pounds, at 5½c and 12 shoats at 4½c.

—A. J. Hayden sold the 18 cattle advertised in this paper to Thompson & McCauley, 14 at 4 and four at 3½ cents, with $1 premium on the latter.

—It is reported that C. W. Williams will have the entire surface of his track at Independence covered with a corrugated rubber cushion two inches thick next season.

—J. S. Robinson has bought 200 barrels of corn in the crib at $2; John Horn sold a lot of 1,270-pound cattle at 3.67; Twenty mules sold at $60 to $90.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

—At F. A. Ehret and E. J. Pepper's sale of thoroughbreds in New York, 26 head brought $223,250, an average of $8,585. Don Alonzo sold for $30,000, Sir Frances $26,000, Yorkville Belle $24,000 and Fairy $10,000.

—Bonner has fully decided to put Maud S. to work again and next season beat Nancy Hanks' time with her. Nancy Hanks has certainly had advantages that were never dreamed of when Maud S. made the world's record she held so long.

—The International Packing and Provision Co. and the Chicago Packing and Provision Co. are to be consolidated. They will have a capacity for killing 12,500 hogs a day and it is said the output will be twice that of the big Armour concern.

—Parson Arney, of Saranac, who has gained notoriety through his inclination toward the trotting horse, has announced his retirement from the turf. He owns a number of well-bred trotters and has gone many a mile better than 2:30 and in races at that. He will preach at Three Rivers in the future.

—J. W. Ferguson shipped to Goldsmith, at New York, Thursday 50 Christ mas cattle, 1,700-pound average, the last of 700 head sold by him, at about 5c. Of the last lot 20 weighed over 2,000 lbs. each. The Paris Kentuckian also notes sales of 40 shipping cattle at 4.30.

—The struggle between Stamboul and Kremlin for the stallion record has been quite animated. The former held it for a long time and until Kremlin's recent performance at Nashville. Last week Stamboul again took the record in 2:08, but Kremlin again wrested it from him at Nashville, Saturday, doing the mile in 2:07.

—E. P. Faulconer, of Danville, writes that he has decided to have annual sales and has built a grand good thing in the way of a covered track and 63 large box stalls at a cost of $5,000. It took 229,000 shingles, 200,000 feet of lumber, 250 long posts and 1½ tons of nails. Sale Jan. 27-28, 1893. Jack and Jennet sales Feb. 20.

—A rather small crowd attended court here yesterday and business was generally dull. Capt. Rottom tells us that there were about 25 head of cattle on the market. Ten head of 800-pound steers brought 2½; rough scrub cattle brought 1½; milk cows $7.50 to $10. A lot of scrub ewes brought $1.50 per head. A good lot was taken down. Plug horses sold at $35 to $55. P. P. Nunneley sold to W. H. Hays a Holstein bull for $15.

DANVILLE.

—Geo. McCoy, a well-known colored man, died Saturday.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Gregory, of Richmond, Va., are visiting Danville friends.

—Mr. Tim Murphy and family have moved to Geo. R. Davis', property on Lexington street.

—Gibson E. Doran has opened an Oyster saloon on Main street near Bruce's livery stable.

—Mrs. M. P. Robinson, who has been very ill of pneumonia, is now thought to be a little better.

—Elder Clubb, of the Christian church, Williamstown, and Elder Kendrick, of the Danville church, exchanged pulpits Sunday.

—Miss Sue McDowell is visiting friends in Springfield. Miss Katie Sandifer is visiting friends in Greensburg. Dr. J. W. Guest returned to Louisville Friday.

—John J. ... a colored person from Harrodsburg, hallooed "Hurrah for Cleveland" on 2d street, Thursday evening, and came near getting his dog-gasted head lights knocked out of him.

—Some of the colored folks have not given up the election yet. An old colored cook says that "Mr. Blaine catch two ballot boxes floating down the river and soon as another one is found Mr. Harrison will be elected."

—Jailer F. M. Shumate arrested and took to Harrodsburg, Thursday evening, a negro named Frank Dean charged with stealing a horse from J. P. Carr, of Mercer county, about 10 days ago. Another party implicated in the same transaction has not yet been arrested.

—J. R. Marrs, Geo. Mahan, Thomas H. Bell, Mrs. Ellen Lyle and Miss Nanie Barbee are candidates for postmaster here. Miss Barbee is a first cousin of Mrs. Stevenson, wife of the vice president elect. J. R. Dodds and Jack Bonta want to be store-keepers in the revenue service.

—Alex Camden was drunk election day and undertook to clean out Harrison Devine, at Parksville. Devine warned him to keep his hands off of him, but Camden persevered, when Camden knocked him down and cut him several times with a barlow knife. Judge Brewer, of Parksville, heard the case and dismissed Devine, the proof showing a clear case of self defense.

—The Diogenesian Society of Centre College telegraphed its congratulation to Vice President-Elect Stevenson and Friday evening received the following reply:

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., Nov. 11, 1892. Messrs. HARRY, WILLIAMS and RULE, Committee, Danville, Ky. My hearty thanks to the Diogenesians. In Hoc Signo Vincas. A. E. STEVENSON.

General Stevenson was a member of this society when a Centre College student.

—Mrs. Ella D. Duke, wife of Col. Wm. Duke, died Sunday night at 10:30 o'clock of peritonitis. She had been ill for several weeks, but became much worse several days before her death. Mrs. Duke before her marriage was Miss Ella Dueron, of Louisville. She was a sincere Christian woman and had many friends. She left no children. Funeral Tuesday at 10 A. M. Services by Rev. E. M. Green, D. D.

—Eph Holt and Ben Brock, white men, were brought from Junction City Monday morning, charged with stealing a coat and vest at Russell's brick yard from Jim Crouch six weeks ago. The coat was found on Holt. When brought before Judge McFerran Brock said that he loaned the coat to Holt, whereupon Holt was released. Brock says he purchased the coat and vest from Sam Nirkirk. The matter is to be investigated Wednesday.

—W. L. Reed has sold his lot on Broadway, on which his residence burned last week, to J. R. Briggs for $2,500. Mr. T. P. Embry informs the INTERIOR JOURNAL that a fine diamond ring, a fine watch and chain, a lot of silverware and other articles of value, in a Saratoga trunk, belonging to his deceased wife, who was a daughter of Mr. Reed, were lost when the house burned. Mr. Embry was in the South at the time of the fire.

—Judge McFerran Monday morning dismissed the case against Mac Moore and James Carter, charged with attempted robbery at Junction City several weeks ago. Mr. Rosel, one of the alleged witnesses, said nothing like an attempt at robbery occurred, and Mr. Roseneau, another one, said he was so full of booze that he did not remember what anybody did, said or thought. Thus, as was predicted in this column a few days ago, another big case (?) has ended in smoke.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

—Gov. Francis will be solidly supported by Missouri democrats for the post-master generalship.

SIX : PAGES.
EVERY FRIDAY.

The democrats seem to have captured the earth and the fullness thereof last Tuesday. They not only retain the Lower House of Congress by an enormous majority, elect their candidate for president with nearly 75 votes in the electoral college to spare, but it looks now that they have also captured the Senate. There are 25 vacancies to be filled and of these it is stated that the democrats will name 13, the republicans nine and the populists three, making the next Senate stand democrats 44, republicans 40 and populists 4. As the latter will likely vote with the democrats our supremacy seems certain even if the States in doubt prove that they are still republican. For the first time in 30 years or more the democrats will be able to pass a law and they will signalize their return to power by passing such as will benefit the whole people instead of a favored few.

The Temps, one of our most valued Parisian exchanges, is a long ways from the seat of war, but it sizes up the situation in the United States pretty accurately, when it says in its issue of the 10th: "Seeing that the campaign was fought solely on economic issues, it is clear that the Americans feel little, if any, affection for the McKinley bill and the beauties of protection. The American people have also for years past perceived that the republican movement is exhausted; that there was no question of principles at stake and that it was absurdly futile to be carried away by memories of Lincoln and Grant to meet the new requirements of a unique situation."

Gov. McKINLEY has set apart Nov. 24 as a day of thanks for the Ohioans. It is safe to say that it will take a very small portion of the day for the gov. to give his. He is the worse whipped man in the country and will now drop out of sight. By the way, his old district, especially gerrymandered by the republicans to return a member of Congress, elects a democrat, while the whole State is so close on electors as to have required the official count to settle the question.

KANSAS seems to have turned herself loose. Not content with electing an ex-Confederate to Congress from the State-at-large, she further distinguished herself by choosing a quarter-blood Indian to represent one of her districts in the same body. An alliance man has been elected governor in the Grasshopper State, Weaver has its electoral vote, the people's party has the Legislature and the g. o. p. is nowhere. In 1888 Harrison's plurality was 80,159. How have the mighty fallen!

MR. WATSON is all right. He spoke at the democratic ratification the other night and explained that he was physically unable to mount the raging stump during the campaign, but that he worked in season and out for the triumph of democracy, in which he is more than delighted. Remembering his long and vigorous efforts for tariff reform and the other good things he has done, the boys in the trenches forgive his seeming lack of interest and take him to their hearts again.

No administration has been so signally rebuffed for years as has Mr. Harrison's. He lays the blame of it upon the ultra position his party took on the protective tariff question, but Benjamin might as well admit that it was his own advocacy of the force bill and the other devilries of his party that he connived at and assisted in that sent him and it to their destruction.

JUDGE HOLT, of the Court of Appeals, who was elected as an independent, but went over body and soul to his first and only love, the republicans, this time and got their nomination for re-election, was defeated by Judge Hazlegriz, the democratic nominee for judge of the Court of Appeals, by from 1,000 to 1,500 majority.

The verdict of the people is that all taxation shall be limited to the requirements of an economical government and that every cent taken from the pockets of the people beyond those requirements is no better than robbery.

The newspapers and politicians are amusing themselves fixing up slates for Mr. Cleveland's cabinet, but it is love's labor lost. Mr. Cleveland will at the proper time perform this duty most satisfactorily.

Illinois went republican in 1888 by 22,195 plurality. This time she elects a democratic governor and the full Cleveland electoral ticket by about 20,000. Talk about cyclones! That's an earthquake.

The war seems to be over. Harris, an ex-Confederate soldier, has been elected congressman-at-large in Kansas, the first man to be so honored in the North that ever wore the gray.

LAURIE BLAKELY, of the Newport Journal, is about the only man we know of who can truthfully say, "I told you so." Several days before the election, in answer to a Commercial Gazette editorial, he said that New York, Indiana, Illinois and all the so-called doubtful States would go democratic and he not only proved himself a prophet, but demonstrated that he is a poet from away back in the headlines he gave the election news.

The democrats of Palaski deserve not only the cake, but the whole bakery. The county has usually given one of the largest republican majorities in the State yet this time the democrats elect J. H. Watson sheriff by 21 and come within 120 of securing the circuit clerkship. The cyclone seems to have raged with peculiar intensity in that, the rock-ribbed republican stronghold.

It was indeed a famous victory. Cleveland's popular majority is at least a million and his electoral majority away out of sight.

ELECTION ECHOES.

Montana elected a democratic Legislature.

West Virginia elected a democratic governor and each of her Congressmen are democrats.

Massachusetts gives Harrison a plurality of 27,000, but re-elects Russell governor by 2,000.

Returns from all the Indiana counties except Crawford are in, and Cleveland's plurality is 8,303.

The latest reports from Minnesota indicate the election of three democratic supreme court judges.

Both sides still claim Ohio, with chances in favor of the republicans. The plurality will be less than 1,000 either way.

Connecticut not only gives her electoral vote to Cleveland, but elects a democratic governor, the first for years.

The official count shows that Chas. F. Joy, republican, has 67 majority over Congressman John O'Neill, in the 11th Missouri district.

The democrats get one of Ohio's 23 electors, but the republicans get the others and Secretary of the State by the skin of their teeth.

The official returns of Rockcastle give Harrison 971 votes and Cleveland 684. Holt, for judge of the Court of Appeals, 970; Hazlegriz 674.

Unofficial returns in Kansas show that the fusionists have secured a majority of nine on joint ballot in the General Assembly, which will take another republican out of the U. S. Senate.

Tennessee democrats did the mischief proud. They elected their candidate for governor by 45,000 and rolled up Cleveland's majority over the 70,000 mark, or nearly four times more than in 1888.

Fuller returns from Texas confirm the estimated election of Hogg by 50,000 to 57,000 plurality. The next Legislature, both House and Senate, will be overwhelmingly democratic. Cleveland's majority is over 160,000.

Delaware is the only one of the Solid Southern States that shows a decrease in the plurality for Cleveland. It was 3,441 in 1888; this time it is 569. Bidwell got 559 votes in the State.

The verdict of the Union is the death knell of protection for protection's sake. It is the complete overthrow of the policy of Federal interference in State elections, and more especially the condemnation and damnation of the use of partisan power to perpetuate the control of any man or set of men.—Atlanta Constitution.

The republicans of Kansas have suffered a sore defeat. Returns from all the counties show that the third party have a majority of 4,327 on president. The republicans have saved from the wreck three congressmen out of eight, and the Legislature by the small plurality of one. The populist majority on State officers is slightly below that of Weaver.

Cleveland has outclassed both Harrison and Weaver. He has shown that he represents the public opinion of the Nation. A man of the people, he has been taken once more to the people's heart. A great commoner, he has again been called to a position higher than that of kings. His candidacy was in response to the demand of the people and for once all considerations save those of the National welfare were waived.—Memphis Appeal-Avalanche.

—Mrs. J. B. Guthrie, of Louisville, barely escaped death from suffocation by the folding bed, in which she was sleeping folding up. Her cries were heard just in time.

—Mrs. Ashby, wife of a strict member of the church at English, Ind., placed $5,000 of her pin money on that State, Illinois and the general result and won every dollar of it.

—The net balance in the United States treasury has been reduced to $28,601,319, owing to the heavy drain of pension payments. Seven million dollars have been paid so far this month.

—Lee Whittington, of Brazil, Ind., went hunting alone and was accidentally shot by his own gun. He laid down in the snow to wait for assistance, but it came just as he was breathing his last.

—Russell Harrison's paper at Helena, Montana, has had attachments amounting to $86,792 filed against it and the paper is in the hands of the sheriff. Russell is playing in the luck his father is.

—Victory of the constitutional amendment proposition at Fort Scott, Kansas, was assured Friday and simultaneously several saloons were opened in that city, the first time they have been run openly for 12 years.

—Near Ottumwa, Iowa, a passenger train on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul dashed into a caboose, killing four passengers and wounding several others. The trains caught fire at once, which added horror to the scene.

—Preparations had been made to hang William Keck, at Allentown, Pa., and when the sheriff went for him he found him dead in his cell. It is not known what caused his death as his body was not mutilated in the least.

—Hall, democrat, defeated French, republican, for circuit judge in the 26th Kentucky judicial district—a happy result, French being the representative of one of the factions which have caused so much bloodshed in that section.

—Mrs. Mary Cox, of Chicago, like other women, looked under her bed before retiring and found a man. Unlike other women, though, she did not scream, but walked down stairs and after locking the door she telephoned for police aid. It came and a well-known sneak-thief was bagged.

—Phillips, the terror of Pike county, who has killed a score of men, at last met his match. Mr. Peters, of Louisa, is the gentleman. The battle was with revolvers and Winchester rifles and it is said that 400 or 500 shots were fired before Phillips was laid out.

—Not satisfied with the generally effective work of the democrats, the republicans of Big Rock Creek, Mitchell county, N. C., have started in to exterminate each other. In a general free fight at the polls between two republican factions, 20 men were wounded and four of them fatally.

McKINNEY BROS.

Mr. Henpeck—I believe I've got the most heroic wife in the world.

Friend—What did she do?

Mr. Henpeck—A burglar came into the house during my absence. My wife didn't scare worth a cent. She received him politely. I saw him. Just as I entered the house he jumped through the window and made his escape. He was a young fellow and rather good looking.

Friend (who knows her)—No wonder he was scared.—Texas Sittings.

No Head for Business.

Mose Schaumburg, Jr.—Vader, a shentlemans wants to know if dot unshrinkable undershirt don't shrink a leedle, anyway.

Mose Schaumburg, Sr.—Does dot shirt fit him?

"No; it was choost a leedle too pig."

"Of course it will shrink! Vy don't you have some heads for pishness?"—Texas Sittings.

Remembrances.

Wife (revisiting the scene of her betrothal)—I remember, Algernon, so well when you proposed to me, how painfully embarrassed you were.

Algernon—Yes, dear; and I remember so well how kind and encouraging you were, and how very easy you made it for me, after all.—Brooklyn Life.

Disputed Ownership.

"Papa," said little Johnnie, "Johnnie is my name, isn't it?"

"Yes, my boy. Why?"

"I saw Johnnie Perkins to-day, and he said it was his, and he got real mad 'cause I told him it wasn't, because you'd given it to me."—Harper's Young People.

A Tight Squeeze.

"I hadn't heard that you'd been ill, Smithson."

"Have thought; been pretty close to death's door."

"Is that so?"

"Yes; two doctors in the house at the same time."—Life.

A Plan That Failed.

Mamma—How did you get scratched so?

Little Daughter—I was putting dolly's shoes and stockin's on the kitty.

"What for?"

"So she couldn't scwatch."—Good News.

No Scandal in It.

Larkin (to his wife)—Did you hear of the Rev. Dr. Thirdly's fall?

Mrs. Larkin—Dear me, no! What has he done?

Larkin—He has fallen heir to $50,000 by the death of an uncle.—Truth.

Why He Growled.

Mrs. Hicks—You blow about my dressmaker, but I never say a word about your tailor.

Hicks—Good heavens, madam, you don't seem to realize that dressmakers have to be paid.—N. Y. Herald.

What She Objected To.

Wife—You are altogether too nice about everything.

Husband—I thought you liked fastidious men?

Wife—I do; it's the fusidious kind I object to.—Detroit Free Press.

Wouldn't Be Safe, You Know.

"I suppose when you marry the duke you will go at once to his home in England with him?"

"Dear me, no? I would never myself away over there with a man I know so little about."—Life.

THE OLD STEAMBOAT CAPTAIN.

Mate, get ready down on deck.

I'm heading for the shore.

I'll ring the bell, for I must land

This boat forevermore.

Say, pilot, can you see that light?

I can—where angels stand!

Well, hold her jackstaff hard on that.

For there I'm going to land.

That looks like Death a-hailing me.

So ghastly, grim and pale;

I'll toll the bell—I must go in;

I never passed a hail.

Stop her; let her come in slow;

There; that will do—no more.

The lines are fast, and angels wait

To welcome me ashore.

Say, pilot, I'm going with them

Up yonder through the gate;

I'll not come back—you ring the bell

And back her out—don't wait.

For I have made the trip of life.

And found my landing place;

I'll take my soul and anchor that

Fast to the throne of grace.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—H. C. Armstrong, a brother of John S. Armstrong, who married one of Capt. F. J. White's daughters, is dead at Louisville.

—Theodore Child, the well-known literary man and foreign representative of Harpers', publishers, died of cholera at Asphand, Persia, Nov. 2.

—Hon. Laban T. Moore, ex-Congressman, ex-State Senator, a leading member of the late constitutional convention and a lawyer of ability, died at Catlettsburg Friday, aged 64.

—Hon. Harrison Bailey, a brother of the late Judge Winfred Bailey, of this place, died at Bagdad, Shelby county, aged 81. Mr. Bailey was one of the best known men in that section. He had represented the county in the Legislature and was sheriff for many years.

—Big-hearted, jolly old Capt. Tom Watterson, is dead and many citizens of Stanford, where he lived for a long time, feel genuine regret. He was a brother of the Hon. Harvey Watterson, father of the distinguished editor and for a number of years had been general western agent of the L. & N. at St. Louis, in which city he died. He served in the Confederate army, where he got the title of captain.

AN EDITOR'S DUTY.—An exchange says that it is an editor's duty to speak of his town as the loveliest place beneath the blue arch of Heaven. Speak of a deceased citizen as a "fallen oak" when he dies of jim-jams. Call a man a prominent and influential citizen when you know he is the best poker player in town. Speak of a little street Arab as a big-footed, newly-married woman as the beautiful and accomplished bride. Call the man who has a few dusty bolts of calico and a soldier's blue coat, a prosperous and experienced dry goods merchant; call a lawyer a leading light of whom the profession should be proud when you know him to be an ordinary pettifogger.

—The Duke of Marlborough, whose last wife was the Widow Hammersley, daughter of the late Commodore Cicero Price, a native of Garrard county, Ky., was found dead in his room at London and a post-mortem examination revealed the fact that his death was due to calcareous degeneration of the large vessels of the heart. The Chronicle says of him: "The late Duke of Marlborough was by habit a breaker of the moral law, by desire a founder of economic laws. He was a man of whose ancestry it was said he proved false to every woman and every cause with which it was connected. But the late duke was not connected with many causes. Nothing, however, but good of the dead is the fashion of the day, so we may say of his later years that they were an improvement on his earlier ones."
